Command Sourcing is proud to offer a service to save your facility time and money while helping to making it a safer place. We partner with a court-approved provider of tailored inmate access and legal assistance services. Administered by an active attorney-owner, these programs ensure compliance with the shifting access standards for diverse inmate populations, and offer a unique combination of tangible, cost-effective benefits, including: No longer necessary to transport or escort inmates to and from the law library which means only the paper moves, not inmates, enhancing security. Eliminates high cost of maintaining law library resources, books or computers at your facility. Recover library space to utilize for other purposes. Services tailor-made to fit each agency's requirements. See how this could benefit your group, request more information or a quote today!
